The top ten holdings and sectors listed are not necessarily representative of the entire portfolio and are subject to change. The most recent semiannual report, which contains a more extensive list of holdings, is available from your financial adviser or by contacting the distributor, G. distributors, LLC. The Fund's share price will fluctuate with changes in the market value of the Fund's portfolio securities. Stocks are subject to market, economic and business risks that cause their prices to fluctuate. When you sell Fund shares, they may be worth less than what you paid for them. Consequently, you can lose money by investing in the Fund.

Standard deviation is a statistical measure of the volatility of a fund's returns. Beta measures a fund's risk relative to the S&P 500 Index which, by definition, has a beta of 1.00. If a fund's beta is less than 1.00, the fund is considered less risky than the market. Alpha is a measure of a fund's actual returns and expected performance, given its level of risk (as measured by beta). Upside/downside capture ratio show you whether a given fund has outperformed, gained more or less than, a broad market benchmark during periods of market strength and weakness, and if so, by how much. R-squared is a statistic that indicates how much of a fund's fluctuations were attributable to movements of the fund's benchmark index.

The inception date of the Fund was June 1, 2007. Performance for periods less than one year is not annualized. Performance for periods less than one year is not annualized. Class A Shares (load adjusted) includes the effect of the maximum 5.75% sales charge at the beginning of the period. Class C Shares (load adjusted) includes the effect of the applicable 1% contingent deferred sales charge for shares redeemed up to and including the last day of the twelfth month after purchase. The Fund imposes a 2% redemption fee on shares sold or exchanged in seven days or less after the date of purchase. By concentrating in a small number of investments, the Fund's risks are increased because each investment has a greater effect on the Fund's performance than a fund which is more broadly diversified in a greater number of holdings. Investing in foreign securities involves risks not ordinarily associated with investment in domestic issues including currency fluctuations, economic, and political risks. The Fund invests substantially all of its assets in the securities of companies that meet its socially responsible and sustainability criteria. As a result, the Fund may forego opportunities to buy certain securities when it might otherwise be advantageous for it to do so, or may sell securities when it might otherwise be disadvantageous for it to do so. Not FDIC Insured. Not Bank Guaranteed. May Lose Value.

Effective January 27, 2020, the Fund's Class AAA, Class A and Class C Shares were "closed to purchases from new investors". With respect to the Class AAA & Class A shares, existing shareholders may continue to purchase additional shares. With respect to Class C Shares, neither new investors nor existing shareholders may purchase additional shares after the effective date. These changes will have no effect on existing shareholders' ability to redeem shares of the Fund as described in the Fund's Summary Prospectus. Additionally, on the Effective Date, Class I shares of the Fund are available to investors with a minimum initial investment amount of $1,000 and purchasing shares directly through the Distributor.
